EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Notification C. No 4, dated 10th November 1917.

All Inspecting Officers and Head Masters of Schools are requested to actively co-operate with the Recruiting Officers of their respective circles and towns in their endeavour to enlist recruits for War Service, including both combatants and non-combatants. Persons willing to be enrolled may apply to the Amildars of the taluks in which they reside or to the Deputy Commissioners of their districts, or to the Chief Commandant, Mysore State Troops, or to the Commandant, Central Concentration Camp at Bangalore. Such of the students and teachers of the department as are desirous of enlistment will be recommended to Government for the following concessions:—

1. Teachers in Government Service joining the Army to be given such leave with allowances as they may be entitled to and in continuation leave without pay and if they are sent on active service to be given half pay for the whole period in addition to what they would get for Military Service.
2. Teachers in grant-in-aid schools, to continue to draw such salary grants while on color service, provided the schools pays an equivalent amount. If the contribution of the school to the teacher's salary is reduced, the Government contribution will be reduced in the same proportion. Such arrangements as may be approved by the Circle Inspectors concerned to be made for supplying the teachers' places during their absence on color service.
3. Pupils to be allowed for the purposes of qualifying for examination or promotion to add to their actual attendances the number of school meetings held during their absence on color service.

It may be stated that students joining the Army as combatants cannot attend school after their enlistment. All other information regarding classes of men required for enlistment, description of recruits, terms of service, pay and prospects, concessions granted since the war, concessions shown to persons who bring in recruits, etc., may be had on application to the local Recruiting Officers.

A list of those who wish to enlist may be forwarded to this office direct by the Inspecting Officers concerned before the end of the current month and again another list before the end of December next.

Notification D. No. 53, dated 14th December 1917.

1. Mr. G. Sridharamurti B.A., Assistant Inspector of Education, City Range, Bangalore, is appointed Attendance Officer in addition to his duties, for the School Committees of the Bangalore City in connection with Compulsory Education.

2. Mr. M. Venkataramiah, B.A., Assistant Inspector of Education, City Range, Mysore, is appointed Attendance Officer, in addition to his duties, for the School Committees of the Mysore City in connection with the scheme of Compulsory Education.
